

Command Sergeant Major Luther Legg III
U.S. Army Recruiting Battalion Minneapolis
Command Sergeant Major

Army and Army Reserve Recruiting
Minnesota • North Dakota • South Dakota
AN ARMY OF ONE

Command Sergeant Major Luther F. Legg III was born August 11, 1969 in Albany, New York. After graduating from Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk High School in 1987, he joined the U.S. Army as a tactical communications systems operator mechanic. He was the Honor Graduate of his Basic Training and initial Advanced Individual Training courses. Upon completion of Advanced Individual Training, he was assigned to Headquarters Company, 3rd Battalion, 502nd Infantry Regiment, Fort Campbell, Kentucky where he completed Air Assault School. He then served as senior unit level maintainer with B Battery, 5th Battalion, 5th Air Defense Artillery at Camp Hovey, Korea and as communications chief for the Test and Experimentation Command, Air Defense Artillery Testing Directorate.

Command Sgt. Maj. Legg was assigned to recruiting duty in January 1993. Upon completion of the United States Army Recruiter Course at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, he was assigned to the Holyoke Recruiting Station, Springfield Recruiting Company, Albany Recruiting Battalion. Converting his military occupational skill to Army recruiter in 1995, he was assigned as station commander, East Hartford Medical Recruiting Station. He has since served as the master trainer for 1st Army Medical Department and the regional non-commissioned officer in charge of the Southwest Health Care Recruiting Region. Upon selection for master sergeant, he was assigned as company first sergeant, Long Island Recruiting Company, and later the Albany Recruiting Company.

He graduated from the United States Army Primary Leadership Development Course as a Commandant's List Honoree, the Unit Level Maintainer/Basic Non-Commissioned Officer Course as Honor Graduate, the Army Recruiter Advanced Non-Commissioned Officer Course as a Commandant's List Honoree, Station Commander's Course as Honor Graduate, the Nurse Recruiter Course as Distinguished Honor Graduate, the Dept. of Army and U.S. Army Recruiting Command's First Sergeant's Course as Academic Honor Graduate, the U.S. States Army Sergeants Major Course as a Class 56 Honor Graduate and the Recruiting Command Sergeants Major Course. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Administration, a Bachelor of Science Degree in Marketing and Advertising and a Masters of Business Administration Degree in Health Care Administration from Anna Maria College, Paxton, Massachusetts.

His awards and decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with five Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Achievement Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters, Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, Global War On Terrorism Service Medal (non-expeditionary); the Korean Service Medal; four time recipient of Chief Of Staff of the Army Recruiter Excellence award. Command Sergeant Major Legg is also a recipient of the Recruiter Ring and prestigious Glen E. Morrell Award.